Six hours per day of this leads to headaches and everyone hating school. My son's 504 plan is not being followed making this year more of a challenge for him and our family. I had to quit my job just to reduce the crying and frustration, not to get ahead. School systems across the country and across VA have figured out a way to get kids into schools safely, so this is not reinventing the wheel. Our kids deserve to go to school.
