A request for consideration for a modified (year-round) calendar for all elementary and middle (?) schools. Would it be possible for our entire school system? My kids are in elementary, so I don't have a full grasp on the nuisances of the middle/high school.

The summer slide has always been a concern. Now there is even more so concern with the Covoid slide. Why not take this unprecedented time to consider this radical move. In consideration of equity, could this be a game changer? With data from Samuel Tucker and other schools in the area, this is something that should be considered for the 2021-2022. Thank you.
