Good evening,

I am a mother of four children currently enrolled in ACPS, and a former student of ACPS myself. I am proud that my children can attend the same schools that I did, and I have had faith that they will get an excellent education, just like I had. However, we must do a better job of investing in our teachers to be able to continue this legacy. Their value cannot be overstated, and thus, they deserve appropriate compensation, including the basic cost of living increase in addition to the proposed step. Please do not give our strongest teachers a reason to seek better opportunities in other school systems.
