TOPIC: 2019 Nominees for ACPS Athletic Hall of Fame (AHOF)

SUMMARY: Each year, the Alexandria City School Board's Athletic Hall of Fame Advisory Committee reviews community nominations of deserving high school athletes, teams, coaches and non-athlete contributors for inclusion in the ACPS Athletic Hall of Fame. Nominees are selected based on their athletic accomplishments in high school, college and beyond, as well as their impact or contribution to the community at large.

On May 6, 2019, the AHOF Advisory Committee met to evaluate the list of nominees and by overwhelming consensus selected the following for induction into the ACPS Athletic Hall of Fame for 2019:

- Julius Campbell, T.C. Williams High School, Class of 1973, Football
- Walter Densmore, George Washington High School, Class of 1957, Basketball
- Tanya Galloway, T.C. Williams High School, Class of 1988, Track
- Ricky Garcia, T.C. Williams High School, Class of 1979, Track

BACKGROUND: In February 2014, the Alexandria City School Board formed the Athletic Hall of Fame Advisory Committee in response to numerous requests to memorialize outstanding student athletes, and to inspire current students to strive for excellence. Since that time, there have been 51 inductees into the ACPS Athletic Hall of Fame.

RECOMMENDATION:

The Superintendent recommends that the School Board review the nominees for the 2019 ACPS Athletic Hall of Fame.
