

Anne Lipnick Awards Rubric

While we believe the true honor is the nomination itself, the selection committee is excited to award the most outstanding nominations. Nominations will be evaluated first to ensure the nominee meets baseline eligibility criteria and then rated using the rubric below.

Criteria	10 points	5 points	1 point
Details leadership, exceptional teaching practices, and/or supporting colleagues which enable achievement and participation for students receiving special education services.	The nominator provides clear and specific examples of the nominee's contributions.	The nominator provides limited information on the nominee's contributions.	The nominator did not provide clear and specific examples of the nominee's contributions.
Details specific examples of the nominee's excellence and illustrates the impact that staff member has made on the ACPS community to advance special education services for students with disabilities.	The nominator includes clear and specific details on impacts to the ACPS community.	The nominator includes limited information on impacts to the ACPS community.	The nominator includes lacks information on impacts to the ACPS community.