

Public Review of Recommended Secondary Science Textbooks

ACPS will adopt new secondary science textbooks, including Advanced Placement (AP) and elective courses starting the 2022–2023 school year. As part of the process, ACPS will offer a public review of the recommended textbooks from April 26 to May 18, 2022.

Textbook samples will be available at the following locations:

- Alexandria City High School
- Minnie Howard
- Francis C. Hammond
- George Washington Middle
- Central Office School Board Room
- Textbook Warehouse

Textbook samples are also available to view online.

Online: Instructions for accessing the materials can be found at the end of the document.

In person (by appointment only): Anyone who wishes to schedule a review appointment should contact Candace Pannell, candace.pannell@acps.k12.va.us, and include their first and second choice for a time slot. Interested ACPS community members will receive a confirmation email about their requested review time. Textbooks will be available for review at the ACPS Textbook Warehouse, located at 604 S.
