Good evening.

As a former student and someone who frequently gets involved with elected officials I want to make sure our students particularly autistic students are given a say in these rough times. While I respect what parents have to say for their kids, we should be taking the time to understand how the kids feel and what they want from us and how we can better teach them.

Even though I didn't attend ACPS, I vowed to make sure no other student in Virginia goes through what I went through regarding behaviorism.

Thank you.
