

LOCALLY AWARDED VERIFIED CREDITS

Panel members will consist of:

- (1) The T.C. Williams test coordinator or representative of the ~~Central Office Monitoring & Evaluation~~ Department of Accountability;
- (2) The Director of Counseling and the Appropriate department chairperson or division curriculum specialist counselor;
- (3) ~~Grade level administrator~~ The Dean of Students, high school principal, ~~or and the~~ Executive Director of Secondary ~~Education~~ Instruction.

Information to be collected and presented by the student's counselor to the panel will include:

- (1) classroom assignments
- (2) course grade(s)
- (3) papers, projects, essays, written assignments

The panel should take into consideration that a student might not have kept assignments from a teacher. Failure to provide 1 or 3 above will not exclude a student from receiving the credit. However, the panel may require additional academic assignments or testing to determine adequate knowledge of Standards of Learning content.
